

Paul J. Achtemeier Award for New Testament Scholarship

In 2009, the Paul J. Achtemeier Award for New Testament Scholarship was created in order to stimulate the finest and most penetrating work in New Testament studies. This award is supported with an annual cash prize of $1,000 for the best unpublished paper in the field of New Testament studies. Winning submissions will be delivered at the SBL Annual Meeting with a panel discussion.

Qualifications for Submission

Any SBL member who has received a Ph.D. or Th.D. in biblical studies or related field, between today and 10 years prior to today's date, may submit a paper. This paper should be of publishable quality. It must not have been previously published or accepted for publication; however, a paper may be submitted that is under review by a journal or academic press if a decision to publish has not been reached at the time of submission. If the paper was delivered at an annual or international meeting, it must exhibit significant revision, as demonstrated by submission of both the original draft and the revision.

Submission materials include:

- Intent to Submit notification
- CV
- Paper

Submissions will be evaluated upon the following criteria:

- A persuasive thesis that engages the New Testament and demonstrates quality of scholarship and significance to the field
- Clarity of expression and thought
- Originality and creativity

Don't miss this opportunity! Check out sbl-site.org for more info on the Paul J. Achtemeier Award for New Testament Scholarship.

Since 1880, the Society of Biblical Literature has carried out its mission to "foster biblical scholarship," making it the oldest and largest learned society devoted to the critical investigation of the Bible and related texts from a variety of academic disciplines.